About the Service

Easter Day

8AM | in our Chapel

10AM | in person, via Zoom and Facebook Live

We have walked with Jesus to the cross beyond the grave to new life. We have heard the story of salvation history captured in the Hebrew and Christian scriptures. We have proclaimed the Gospel story and by listening we learn how to live. We celebrate, proclaiming that, with God, all things are possible - even life after death.

Sunday, April 4, 2021

Our Prayer Concerns

We continue to pray for those in our parish family in need of God's help and healing, especially Debbie Anderson, the Blakeslee family, Tom Giesler, Diane Green, the Lanese family, Vince, Paul, John Savarirayan, Dave, Mary Jane, Helen, Mickey, Edwin Leidel, Erin Jordan, Lorraine Donegan, the Munch family, the family of Ruta Lauva, and Jenn Eckmayer.

We also pray for all of those who are afflicted with COVID-19, for their caregivers, and families, particularly for our "Give Warmth" families of the Morton East Freshman Center in Cicero who have lost parents due to Covid-19.

We send a special prayer for all those who are on the front lines: our first responders, the National Guard and other military personnel, utility workers, and especially for our medical workers who bravely care for the sick and suffering.

Our Special Prayers

People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People One God and Creator of all.

The celebrant then says:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People           And also with you.

Celebrant       Let us pray together.

Collect of the Day

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

*The People respond: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (Read Responsively)
Confitemini Domino

Psalm 118:1–2, 14–24

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; *
his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel now proclaim, ****

"His mercy endures for ever."

The LORD is my strength and my song, * and he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exultation and victory * in the tents of the righteous:

"The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! *
the right hand of the LORD is exalted!
the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!"

I shall not die, but live, ****

and declare the works of the LORD.

The LORD has punished me sorely, * but he did not hand me over to death.

Open for me the gates of righteousness; ****

I will enter them; I will offer thanks to the LORD.

"This is the gate of the LORD; * he who is righteous may enter."

I will give thanks to you, for you answered me *
and have become my salvation.

The same stone which the builders rejected * has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the LORD's doing, * and it is marvelous in our eyes.

On this day the LORD has acted; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

The Epistle

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you-- unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

The People respond: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Processional

Easter Alleluia

Gospel

John 20:1-18

Then, all standing, the Celebrant proclaims the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People                    Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.*

*For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.*

*For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.*

*On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.*

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer I Enriching Our Worship, Volume I

|           |  |
|-----------|--|
| Celebrant | The Lord be with you.                                    |
| People    | And also with you.                         |
| Celebrant | Lift up your hearts.                                     |
| People    | We lift them to the Lord.                  |
| Celebrant | Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.                  |
| People    | It is right to give our thanks and praise. |

The celebrant continues:

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who for our sins was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; who by his suffering and death became the author of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Celebrant and People

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues:

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life.
You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.
You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.
But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves;
we would not see your goodness in the world around us;
and so we violated your creation, abused one another,
and rejected your love.
Yet you never ceased to care for us,
and prepared the way of salvation for all people.
Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you.

You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time,
you sent your eternal Word,
made mortal flesh in Jesus.
Born into the human family,
and dwelling among us,
he revealed your glory.
Giving himself freely to death on the cross,
he triumphed over evil,
opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us,
Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:
“Take, eat:
This is my Body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them, and said:
“Drink this, all of you:
This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine.

By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.
Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world.
Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come,
we may praise your Name for ever.
Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
to you be honor, glory, and praise,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us, not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread and says

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Facing the people the Celebrant says the following Invitation:

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion Music

Alleluia! The Strife Is O'er, The Battle Done

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive communion. If you do not wish to partake, but desire a blessing, cross your arms over your chest, and the priest will bless you. Our communion bread is gluten-free.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Loving God,
we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth as one people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us children through the resurrection of Christ Jesus our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring you to your eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you forever. Amen.

Wardens' Update (March 31)

Due to the relaxation of pandemic restrictions by the Diocese, we are able to have up to 3 cantors in the church. They may not sing together, they must be masked and they must maintain a 20 feet social distance. On Sunday, March 28, we were fortunate to have Bob Konold sing two hymns. Also on March 28, the prerecorded Passion play was shared in the Nave as well as with live streaming. We are so blessed to have members of the congregation take the time to record their roles, and for Reverend Kevin and Bob Konold to put all the recordings together and arrange for the screening in the Nave. The service was very moving.

In person Sunday services continue along with live streaming of services via Zoom and Facebook. We continue to request sign-up for services to ensure that attendance at services does not exceed the maximum allowed under pandemic guidelines. We also require all who attend in person to wear a mask and to sit in appropriately designated pews. Those attending in person are also asked to use hand sanitizer prior to entering the space.

Holy week is upon us. Father Kevin and the worship committee have provided services during the week that will allow for observance of Holy Week, both in person and online. We are grateful to Bob Konold and Jane Schenck for continuing to serve as videographers for our services.

Thanks to Vicky Syren and Jane Schenck, the March 24th Soup Supper Zoom meeting was held without any technical difficulties. We had 15 people in attendance. The last Soup Supper will be held on Wednesday, March 31st.

Reserve Your Pew!

As more of us are beginning to venture out to church on Sundays, we are instituting a reservation system to make sure that we do not exceed the current COVID mitigation capacity limits. Please note that this does not include: ushers, altar guild, musicians, readers or altar party members.

Please see your mid-week email for the reservation link.
